Interviewer: Hi Jane! Can you tell our readers why you love living in Cape Town ?

Jane: Yes! Well, this June thousands of football fans came to our city to watch the World Cup. But there's more to the country than football. There are always fun things to do, day and night, especially if you are young. There are malls and coffee shops where you can just relax with your friends. We also have go-karting, ice-skating and dune-bashing.

Interviewer: What is dune-bashing? Can you tell me more about it?

Jane: Dune-bashing is riding three-wheel bikes through the sand dunes on the beaches.

Interviewer: What is the one thing I should see?

Jane: You should really go and see Table Mountain. You can see the city from up there. Take the cable car if you are not scared of heights.

You will see a really cute animal that lives there — the dassie.

Interviewer: What kind of animal is it?

Jane: Actually it is quite small and looks like a large mouse. But although it just resembles a mouse they say that in origin it is closer to an elephant!

Interviewer: What other animals live in Cape Town?

Jane: If you are in the heart of the city, you don't have to worry about any of the animals, maybe, just stray dogs and cats. In the countryside you have to be careful — there are lions and leopards!

Interviewer: Is it true there is a lot of crime? Is Cape Town safe? Jane: Like in any big city, I wouldn't suggest walking around late at night but don't let that stop you from coming here.

Interviewer:

Is it really hot? Shall I bring all my summer clothes if I come in July?

Jane: No! In July it's winter here so I suggest you pack your winter clothes — but our winter isn't as cold as a winter in Europe, so a jacket or jumper will keep you warm on a mild winter's day.
