Now we are ready to start.

Mother: Morning, Ted.

Ted: Good morning, Mum.

Mother: I'm making scrambled eggs. Shall I make some for you or would you rather have a sandwich?

Ted: No, thanks Mum. I've already eaten. I got up early . Did you see some sandwiches? I made some sandwiches earlier. They were right here.

Mother: They're in the fridge. You have enough sandwiches to feed a small army. Why don't we do something together today?

Ted: I'm sorry, Mum. But I'm busy from morning till night.

Mother: Where are you going?

Ted: To the park.

Mother: Why? What's happening at the park?

Ted: Don't you remember, Mum? It's Riverdale Day.

Mother: Oh, that's right. Today's the day when everyone helps clean up the town parks.

Ted: You know they're doing something special to improve the playground area.

Mother: They want to make it bigger or smaller?

Ted: Not bigger, it's big enough. Mostly they want to make it safer. Do you remember my friend Jimmy? He broke his arm on the playground last year.

Mother: Jimmy? The tall guy with freckles on his face? He has a job as a lifeguard at the town swimming pool. Right?

Ted: That's right. He and I will be working together today. Jimmy's father is a builder, and he's bringing a tractor to make the rough ground smooth. He doesn't want Jimmy to break his arm again.

Mother: There must be something I can do to help you. I could do some painting or any other job.

Ted: Thanks, Mum but you've been working so hard. You should just rest this weekend.

Mother: OK. Do a great job!

Ted: We will.

Mother: Take care.

Ted: Bye.
