

Basic. Four. I'm loving my Anki decks and I need to share my joy with my students. Where? On the internets, stupid. Enter Quizlet. And ... it doesn't rock, sort of. I couldn't import a Pauker deck into Quizlet. Instead, I created a small sample deck or set, just for you to peek through. I definitely need some time before I feel comfortable with Quizlet. I am going to create a group for my students to help them learn the vocabulary from their textbook, chapter by chapter.
