TO MY MOTHER

Again, in your eyes I see sadness

So anxious was not comfortable.

I will be quietly nestle

And driving away anxiety, incidentally.

Your smile is so bright

It is like a ray of the light.

And in this smile of pure soul

I feel protection from any harm.

When I am a little older

And my children will be born.

I will try to explain them

What is the best mom in the world.

Please do not cry and do not be sad

After all, we are a strong unit with our dad.

And if something is wrong you always forgive us.

I say: "Sorry for everything, my mother", with love
