~To my mother~

My dear, dear mummy

I love you very much!

Sometimes you are sweet like honey

Sometimes you are bright and shiny.

"Mother" is a special word

It is known by all people of the world.

I know your face, your lovely face

Is full of beauty and miraculous grace.

My father said that you are the best wife

Because you give him new and splendid life.

You are really the best wife

But sometimes you can be as keen as a knife.

My mother is as slow as a snail

When she begins to color her nails.

My mummy is as gentle as a lamb

Because she likes to eat jam.

You see, how I love my mother -

I love her very much.

But we should love our mothers,

Not only in March. http://tea4er.ru/images/fbfiles/files/___1.zip
