To my mother

You give me the most striking lights
From which it is always warm
I feel your tender even at nights
When everywhere is gloom.
I thank you for your care
What give you every day for me,
You will be in my heart forever
You are the best mother could be!
You cook, you wash, you clean the room,
You work and drive a car.
You spend a lot of time for me
But in spite of this you're shining like a star!
Sometimes I'm naughty, disobey
But looking in your eyes
It seems to me I understand
The meaning of this life.
I love you, mum, I'm proud of you
I like everything you do
Be happy, healthy every time
Because I so need you!

I am sure your mother should follow your advice "Be happy, healthy every time because I so need you!"
These words show your real love to your mother!
Well done!

The words of your poem are coming from your heart. This words are very sincere. I love your poem, I'd like that my little daughter would say such words. Good luck!
