My dear mummy today I want to say:

"You are the best for me in every way!"

You gave me birth and spent those sleepless nights

When I was a baby and you heard my cries.

You taught me to go, to eat and to read

All these things are what all people need.

Since my babyhood you are always near

That's why severities are not my fear.

We understand each other at a glance

And try to be together in every chance.

You are the most adorable in the world

Your love and tenderness are like gold!

And on this day I should tell you

"Thanks, my mummy, I worship you!"

It was a real pleasure to read your poem. It's tender and nice. I am sure your mother liked these words

"You are the most adorable in the world

Your love and tenderness are like gold!"
