Mother

Mummy, I love you

For all that you do.

I'll kiss you and hug you,

I think you love me, too.

I like how you look,

I like how you cook,

I'll help you every day.

I want to wish today

Be happy, be happy

And always with me!

Now I want to say

“Happy Mother's Day!”

Mummy, I love you

For all that you do.

For all the days and all the nights

That we spent side by side.

Today is your happy day,

These beautiful flowers I bring

Mummy, accept, I pray

My modest offering.

My Mother, my dear,

I'm happy that you're always near.

Now I want to say

“Happy Mother's Day!”

Your poem is very sincere. The words are simple, but they have a lot's of the kindness. Best wishes.
