My dear mummy!

My mummy always helps me
When I am ill or sad,
She trusts me and believes me,
Supports me if I feel bad.

When I was young, she always
Read poems and tales,
I still remember the stories
She read me day by day.

I also remember
When I was four or three,
We went to winter forest
And walked between fur-trees.

But now I 'm fourteen,
And like a normal teen,
Sometimes I can be naughty,
Annoyed by my routine.

My mummy understands me
And also forgives,
I thank her for the patience
And everything she gives!

I wish I had a million –
But not a coins' sum:
A million happy years
For dear-dear mum!!!
