My Mother

In my soul there is the sun
When I see you, dear Mum!
And your kind pretty eyes
Are as usual bright and nice.

And your hands are tender and sweet
When you caress your lovely kid.
If all the world doesn't you perceive
Mother will always us forgive.

She'll forgive these awful mistakes
That her child sometimes makes.
From all troubles she'll protect
And the right way out she'll detect.

Mum! I wish you be as beautiful as rose!
Be as young as spring grass those!
Be a friend to me forever!
Let the troubles bother you never!
