Mother's day.

For the best Mummy in the world
from her loving son.

What day is today?

Today is Mother's day!

It's one of the greatest holidays.

It's one of the funniest days.

All the children say:

"Welcome, welcome, Mother's day!"

And they buy a lot of flowers

Just for mothers in their houses.

Today I'm going to get up early

Because I want to be the best son:

And everything seems fun and jolly,

Oh, yes, we're going to have a great fun!

I love you, Mummy, you're my dear,

I wish you joy and health this year,

A lot of smiles for the best Mum in the world,

Because "Mother" is my favorite word!

I will cook a big sweet cake.

If Mummy asks me: "What is that?"

I will tell her: "It's your present.

And lots of happiness get back!

I'm sure I will grow up soon,

Go to the sky, and bring the Moon".

Then I will hug my darling mother

And we will celebrate this day together.

What day is today?

Today is the happiest day
