My mother's face

My mother's face is lovely face,

It full of beauty, it full of grace.

Her dark-blue eyes are clear

And shine us as crystal.

She can drive me away from darkness

She can drive me away from a grief

Her character is good and kindly

I need her advice every day

I like her warmest voice

I like her brilliant mind.

I like her slender figure

I like her skillful hands

I want to see my mom's eyes

I want to see her joy

I want to hear my mom's laugh

I want to be with her

She is more than a friend

She always gives me a hand

I love my mommy very much

Be happy, smile and be in touch.

Let it be:'I love my mommy very much

Be happy, smile and be in touch."

You love your mother very much! This poem was written with great tenderness. Best wishes.
