My favourite person is my Mother

My mother's like a sunny summer day.
She's lovely and pretty, they say.
But for me, my mum is the best
And I always choose her from the rest.

She's always there for me when I need it
And whenever I'm wrong, she forgives it.
My mummy gives me clever advice
And she says only truth, never lies.

I adore the smell of her perfume
It smells like biscuits and coffee...
I'm fond of the way she's walking around
And when I see her, I'm very proud.

I promise; I will always love my mum
And I'll give her only pleasure, but not harm.
My mum is so beautiful and kind
That she deserves all happiness in life.

And I believe my mum is like an angel
Once came down from the distant heaven
My only wish to be with her forever
And help her – whatever and whenever.
