SIMPLE WORD.....

You start your life with simple word.
And every day it is often heard.
And every kid in every place
Says: "mum" in many different ways.
This magic word's a sort of spray
That leads us forward even luck's away.
And our mothers like the Angels
They think about us and pray
For our happiness and grace
In every moment every day.
They live for us and they are sure
That their children are the Best.
From start their lives and all the rest...
We should remember them and know
When saying "mum" in different sort
This simple word is blessed by God!

What a nice poem! "And our mothers like the Angels", "This simple word is blessed by God!" - what nice words you have used to describe all mothers! I like your poem very much. It is full of warm love and respect to mother.
