Mother's Day

Аннотация:

Мама занимает особое место в моем сердце. В своем авторском стихотворении я попыталась выразить свою любовь и преданность к ней и показать ей свою искреннюю признательность. Я старалась донести до читателей, что мама- это человек, который всегда будет рядом и поможет в любой ситуации.

Annotation:

My mother is very special for me. In my poetry I tried express my love, my loyalty and gratefulness to her. I did my best to make the readers realize that there is noboby but mother who will be always ready to help you when you need it.

Mother's Day

Wake up in the morning,
Opening my eyes,
I feel my mother's presence,
Watching the sun rise

Her hair's fondled by the sun.
The sun ray's running lightly,
Like Cheshire cat,
It makes her face delightful.

Mother smiles,
Comes to me,
Saying "Morning, darling"
And kisses me with hugging.

She chucks me lovely,
And then just make me moving,
I realize it very clearly,
I won't forget her approving.

When I was ill,
She was with me,
My dear mummy,
Taking care of me.

My mother is always here.
She came through all with me.

In desperate and happiness,
Like boats, searching for the quay.
Oh, mother, mummy,
I love you
Faithfully.
