Mother's Day

Mother is the best friend for every child.
Her eyes are kind, her hands are mild.
Day and night she cares about you,
And helps to learn you something new:
About love, about peace,
About war, about disease...
She opens the world and teaches you to dream,
She makes you smile and shows you the beam...
Don't forget your mothers!
You won't have got others!
Only they will love you in any trouble,
Try to make their life more comfortable,
When you're not at home and even you're in a hurry,
Just call your mother because she's really in worry.
When she'll be much older, grumbling, in a bad mood,
Be patient as she was in your childhood...

Your poem is nice. The words are very warm. After the reading of this poem I had a big desire to call to my mother and hear your voice. Thank's you for your job. Best wishes.
