I tried to express all the affection, faithfulness and fondness I have towards my mum in my poem:
http://tea4er.ru/images/fbfiles/files/ShichkinaMG_For_My_Angel-20130105.rar

A mild serenity in the ungrudging eyes,
In depths of which there gleams the Sun
With an entrancing living dust of light,
Which are so beauteous and young.
My universe reflected in these eyes
Alive with an unstinting love and hope
To alienate a child from all the lies,
To be one's everlasting guard and cope.

My dear angel and the sunshine of my soul,
What would I've done without you?
God shared with you this toilsome dole
To be my mum, you've not deplored --
You did your best to satisfy His will,
You prayed of me to our holy Lord,
You tended me, you cared of me,
You let me tell you of my bliss and of my sores.
Do you remember that faery starlit night
When you were telling gripping fairytales?
I was scared of the enchanting maid in white*,
And joyful for the startling 'Nightingale'.
I had my head resting on your shoulder,
And watching stars twinkling in the inky sky,
I thought there's no one better, no one bolder
Than my benign and lovely mum.

Oh, if I only could delineate,
How grateful I am to my goluptious mum,
How much I wish to be her very aid,
How much I want her to be happy and lit up.
I would just like to wish my dear mum
A lot of happiness and love, a lot of health,
To be my endless brightest Sun,
And if she'd like to, also wealth.
I'd like to wish her... HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

I am sure your devotion to the angel is nice, marvellous and well done. What is more, your angel is your mother. Take care of her!

Thank you so much for your beautiful words about my mum! Yes, indeed, she is an angel for me... just as each mum is an angel for her child. :-)
May your family be happy, too!
