A Tender Melody

A tender melody in my heart

To you will never end!

I'm really sad when we're apart,

It's hard to go through, I bet!

Nobody loves me more than you,

Nobody will, I guess.

Nobody cares as you do

What I should deal with every day.

You find the words to make me calm

And also make me glad!

Oh, you have got this special charm

To make me sorry when I'm bad!

You can forgive me everything,

Who can be so kind?

I want to keep in memory

Your face forever young!

The only thing I have in mind –

My dear Mother, be alive!

Your lyrical lines are very tender, nice and poetic! We wish all mothers to be alive forever!

Good luck in the contest!
