Mother

Mother, you're in every kid,
You're in flying clouds a bit.
You're in fields with mature wheat,
You're in air which is clear and heat!
You are in hearts of all of us
With your love and kindness thus!
You can even light the stars!
You – the Sun which goes pass!
You can unite all the men
Despite their habits, likings and trend!
Sometimes you work for five or even ten
In spite of being teachers, doctors, businessmen!
You are responsible for all.
And we forget sometimes you to call.
Your helping hand when we in fall
Would always rescue whether you old or small!
We must repeat you every day
Be healthy, happy as you may!
You, MOTHER, our Universe we'd say!
We, smaller planets, would promise you –obey!

Your poem is written with great care and tenderness. You are right writing that our mothers are "in hearts of all of us".

Best wishes.
