My mother's love!

Although I'll never lay a claim to fame,
I'm satisfied to sing her lovely name:
"M" is for the million things she gave me.
"O" means only that she's growing old.
"T" is for the tears she shed to save me.
"H" is for her heart of purest gold.
"E" is for her eyes, with love lights shining.
"R" means right, and right she'll always be.
Put them all together; they spell "mother,"
A word that means the world to me.

"M" is for the mercy she possesses.
"O" means that I owe her all I own.
"T" is for her tender sweet caresses.
"H" is for her hands that made a home.
"E" means everything she's done to help me.
"R" means real and regular, you see.
Put them all together; they spell "mother,"
A word that means the world to me.
My mother was special, she's more than a friend.
Whenever I needed her, she gave me a hand.
She lead me and guided me in all that I did.
Try all that she could just to see I got through.
Good times and bad times, she's there for it all.
Said head up, be proud, and always stood tall.
She loved me through quarrels and even big fights,
or heart to heart chats on cold lonely nights.

My mother's the greatest that I've ever known,
I think God made my mother like He'd make his own.
A praiser, a helper, an encourager too,
Nothing in this world that she wouldn't do.

My mother isn't living now
And I want to give her bow.
She was the best mother around,
I will remember her surround.
