To my Mother

Since the day of my birth
Somewhere deep in my heart
I have kept mother's voice,
I have kept mother's love,
And a lullaby song
That was not very long.
There on the pillow of dreams
The Moon sang sweet melodies.
I've remembered her arms
And the warmth of her eyes,
And her beautiful smile
Like the star in the sky.
She is my pure life.
She is my real angel.
She is my open sole.
And I can't imagine
My little world without her...
It seems so strange...
But being mum myself
I need her help, more love and care.
I'm still her little darling daughter.
She'll stay my dear mum forever... http://tea4er.ru/images/fbfiles/files/Pavlova_DL_Mothers_day.zip

Very nice poem. These words are wonderful:

.....I've remembered her arms

And the warmth of her eyes,

And her beautiful smile

Like the star in the sky.....

I wish you a happy New Year!

Good luck at the contest!

Your poem is nice. The words are simple, but very touching.
