Mother's Heart.

Mother's Heart is a beautiful flower
That springs with a child's cry.
Mother's Heart is a crystal bowl
That can be easily broken by a lie.

Mother's Heart is a bird in the sky
That is flying and singing and smiling.
Mother's Heart is a small butterfly
That is so neat and so nice and so caring.

But sometimes when her child's far away
Mother's Heart is like a rain.
It's full of darkness and tears.
It's full of loneliness through the years.

At such moments it's like a sere flower,
It's like a broken bowl,
It's like a bird with only one wing,
It's like a butterfly gone with a wind.

Please, remember that Mother's Heart
Is the only one all around the World.
Please, take care of it, don't say a bad word
Love your Mother and right now
Call her and say "Hello! ...I love you!"
You will hear "Oh, my dear! Me too!"

I like your comparisons. Only a loving daughter could create such magic lines. Good luck in the contest!

Your poem is very nice. The words are touching!

"Please, remember that Mother's Heart
Is the only one all around the World."

- these are the main words for everybody!
I wish you good luck!
