To my mother

My mother is my devoted friend,
And we can rely on each other.
Now I visit her at weekend,
But my loyal friend is my mother.
I know my mother will never betrays me,
And she always forgives me too.
My mother is a patient teacher,
And she is Jack of all trades too.
I turn to her for help or advice,
And she cheers me up in trouble.
Her help is very nice.
And sometimes her help is a big surprise.
My mother means the world to me.
And she is always interested in me.
She loves and cares for me,
My mother means the world to me. http://tea4er.ru/images/fbfiles/files/Kolmakova_IA_MothersDay.rar

Aren't you proud of your mother - your devoted and loyal friend?
I am sure - you are. It was a real pleasure for me to read your nice poem!
