My Mother

These loving eyes

This tender smile

The little rays of wrinkles

On mother's face,

Oh, stop the time,

The stubborn running days!

Your restless hands,

Your kind voice,

The cradle song for night...

Because of you, my Mummy,

I remember childhood bright!

You - like a sunny spring for me

When dreams are realized.

You - my the only support

Reliable and nice!

We choose the roads, many ways

And for success in strive

Forget about home "nests"

In search of "paradise"

And you will never take offence

My Mother, dear me!

I am afraid to miss your wait,

The chance to speak, to see....

These loving eyes,

This tender smile,

These little rays of wrinkles

On Mother's face....

Oh, stop the time

The stubborn running days.

The magic words of love and respect come from your heart.

Best wishes!
