учитель Дубинина Л.В.

The war was over with our victory!
And these years are behind,
Medals and orders shine
On veteran's chests

They remember spring
Of the forty-fifth year
And how they were glad then!
The WAR was OVER on our Earth!

Many years passed
The ground burnt under the feet.
And there are few war veterans alive.
But they are always in the memory with us!

For everything that we have now,
For each our happy hour,
For the sun which shines on us
We thank great grandfathers and our grandfathers!

We honor our veterans
With St.George ribbon on the chest!
The orange colour means flame,
And the black colour - a war!

Dear veterans!
Do not be ill.
And let St. George ribbon
