The madness of war

The man lying on the ground
And looking at the sky...
What he lost and what he found –
We will never hear him lie.

They saw him fall. He was almost dead
But still heard her voice...
This War seems to us so mad
But did they have another choice?

There are around thousands of deadmen
All killed by this strange time.
They are the same alone for the War –
It made from them a strong line.

Now the soldiers are “best enemies”
With motivation to leave the old past.
They have to nail down the lead in the breast –
Such a kind of life proceeds too fast.

All die in this disaster
Not noticing this beauty...
And the sky which usually looks after
That you should do your duty.
