To the heroes of the War

I didn't see the war
I didn't see the hunger
I didn't hear bombs
I didn't hear cries

My great granddad did
He was a soldier in the war
He saw death, hunger, pains
He heard explosions of the bombs

He fought with enemies
For what is right
His bravery and heroism
Were real help for Victory.

Now we live in peace
We see blue sky
And singing birds
Because of granddads' deeds

Be proud of the Russian men,
Who fought for our life.
Be grateful to the men
Who gave us peace to live.
