Another time, another day is gone,
But, now I know you are not alone.
You were such young, and suddenly died,
And thinking of you long, many cried.

The sense, the descriptions are so beautiful,
Your verses are so emotional and wonderful.
You are really a great poet of the world!
All your good work weighs as gold.

Can you feel my heartbeat, when I read your text?
And this happens every time. I think what will be next...
My feelings when I read, I'll remember forever,
And I will forget your poems never.

For your happiness in heaven I pray.
I think you understand my feelings today,
I am proud that I know such a man as you,
Esenin, I want to say, I respect you.
My inspiration and Muse it`s you.

Your verses are so emotional and wonderful.
Your verses are also very emotional & natural coming from the bottom of your heart...
Wish good luck in the contest.
